ANNOUNCEMENTS

50th anniversary event:

Thursday, 24 November: Inclusive and Sustainable Industrial Development (ISID) for job creation to address the root causes of migration

On Thursday, 24 November 2016, UNIDO will bring together key development stakeholders to discuss the global dimension of migration from a long-term and strategic prospective. The session will examine the key aspects of industrial development that will help build sustainable, inclusive, mutually beneficial and socially optimal migration patterns on a global scale.

Delegations of the Industrial Development Board are encouraged to join the event in Board Room D from 2 to 3.30 p.m. and listen to the discussion on how industrial development contributes to build resilience for migration and what is needed to strengthen the migration-industrial development nexus.

Texts of written statements

Statements submitted to the Office of the Meetings Management Unit will be published on the UNIDO website, unless there is a clear indication that they should not be made available on the Internet (www.unido.org/idb/44).

Internet

Delegates can connect to the Internet throughout building C by using the wireless connection named “WLAN-GUEST”, which is available in both the conference rooms and throughout building C.
